Employers Help Workers Save

Did you know that as you're advancing in your professional life, you often gain economic power? As you work and age, hopefully you've had the opportunity to become more financially aware and responsible, paying down debt, exercising restraint with credit cards and building savings. As this occurs, there are many opportunities to learn and grow in terms of financial knowledge and one of the best ways people can build financial literacy is to take advantage of the resources offered by their employers. Just knowing that you have the ability to invest in Ohio Deferred Compensation (Ohio DC) through your employer shows that they care about helping you to save for retirement.

If you're one of the many people who feel uncomfortable with financial terms or think retirement is a long way off, now is a great time to explore what services and information are available to you through Ohio DC. We can help you take control of our financial future through a variety of tools and calculators available here. If you want to learn the definitions of financial terms, take a look here.

Your employer has made it a priority to make Ohio DC available to you as an option for your retirement savings and we're here to help you take full advantage of everything we have to offer. If you would like to talk to one of our knowledgeable Account Executives, you can give us a call at 877-644-6457. If you'd like to explore what we have to offer on your own, you can visit our website at Ohio457.org. It's never too early to start saving for your future.
